

Posting Comments to the Willard Round Table

The Willard Round Table is a blog site or social networking site that was setup to discuss the rising issues and concerns in the Willard community. The project, adopted by the Willard City Schools, was setup with the intent of giving all Willard citizens a voice to be heard. The site is located on the Internet at <http://willardroundtable.blogspot.com>. Your constructive comments are welcomed and appreciated.

1. To view comments on each topic listed, select the topic and a dropdown list of all the comments will appear. If you wish to post a comment, select the comments link.

2. After selecting the comments link, simply type your comment in the blank space provided. You may select to send your comments Anonymously, choose a Nickname or create your own account username. After selecting an identity, choose the "Publish Your Comment" button.

Thanks for posting to the Willard Round Table.
